

Eleftherios Digonis is an Architect with a diploma in Architecture at N.T.U.Athens, Greece (1986) and a postgraduate degree (Master of Engineering) at the Fukui University of Japan (1991).

He is CEO of MEAS SA and has more than 30 years experience in coordination and design of a large number of architectural projects in a variety of study fields such as Museums, Educational Buildings, Sports Facilities, Transportation Projects etc. He has published presentations of his company's projects in scientific journals and has exhibited at the Biennale of Venice.