

George Doulis is a NTUA Civil Engineer, specialized in Geotechnical Engineering.

He has more than 30 years' experience in the design, supervision, coordination and consultancy field for various geotechnical projects in Greece and abroad concerning road works, railways, marine and coastal projects, dams and hydraulic projects, buildings and underground structures with specialization in tunneling.

Indicatively main projects refer to the Athens International Airport, Rio-Antirio Bridge, Egnatia Motorway, Athens Olympic Games road works, ERGOSE railway works, Northern Crete Motorway (VOAK), Athens Metro, Stavros Niarchos Foundation Cultural Center, E65 motorway, Dams and Tunnels in Algeria, Athens Water Supply and Sewerage Company (EYDAP S.A.), etc.

He is member of the board in the "EDAFOMICHANIKI S.A." company since 1991 and President - General Manager in the "GEOTECHNICAL INVESTIGATIONS S.A." company since 2000.

He is a member of ASCE, ISRM, IGS and ISSMGE. Council Member and treasurer of the HSSMGE, Hellenic Society of Soil Mechanics and Geotechnical Engineering since 2005.