

Alexandros-Arkadios Tsavdaroglou is an Urban-Regional Planner, who graduated from Aristotle University of Thessaloniki (Greece), and has a master's degree (MSc) in European Spatial and Environmental Planning, from Radboud University Nijmegen (Netherlands).

He is the President of Schediasmos S.A., a consulting engineering firm that started operating in 1984 and specializes in land administration and urban planning services. He has more than 15 years of experience in the field of public works and he is specialized in bid management and project management- coordination of urban planning projects such as General Urban Plans, Local Urban Plans and Town Plans.

He has been actively participating since 2010 in the International Society of City and Regional Planners (ISOCARP) while he is also a member of the Permanent Committee on Spatial Planning and Development – Technical Chamber of Greece / Section of Central Macedonia (TEE-TKM). He has also been participating since 2020, as a substitute member, in the Thessaloniki Council of Urban Planning Affairs and Disputes (SY.PO.TH.A.) (SYPOTHA A').